MOTHER / ALCYONE

[M / A]

Greetings in the Light of the Most Radiant One. In the Office of the Christ and only in the Office of the Christ, we invoke the loving energies of St Germain and the Violet Flame!

Greetings, Children of RA!

Happy Spring Equinox ! It's coming up!

T: It's today – Rainbird was saying it was today; it's also St Patrick's day - and he did not honour the Divine Feminine; cast it aside – a different time!

M/A: he was a bit of a rogue!

T: like the church is a bit of a rogue you could say . .

M/A: the Admiral would not be happy with what they've done

T: and in order to proceed - hohoponopono - I'm sorry, please forgive me, thank you, I love you
- has been dreaming of Angel Su lately -

M/A: Indeed this is the time where it all changes. As we can see, the surface of the story going deeper: 26, 826 years of this !

T: Amazing that we are coming to a completion of it!

M/A: Yes

T: Isn't time relative?

M/A: Relative to where you are in the moment!

T: what we're talking about is that this moment is a moment that comes more often now where the collective has an agreement that it is time for peace

M/A: Yes – we shall study war no more! This energy pouring in right now from Great Central Sun is about this emerald green gamma ray light that is lifting everyone up, and bringing peace to the land. It is time!

- The solar flares are increasing, bringing the waves of higher light that are making this shift happen!

T: There is something extraordinary about this event in the first place and something over and above that in the second place

M/A: Yes, inside of all of us

T: . . . getting over ourselves

M/A: Yes. As we relate to the higher energies coming in: change the thoughts, change the emotions. We would say practice only love; it's how we have an easier time of it!

- As we resist, gets tougher. You see how many are resisting right now! It's simple things – yet so difficult

T: Are you thinking of something particular, Mother?

M/A: Yes, it is this shift that's happening. As we embrace the radiance of what's coming in, and allow things to flow in the way in which the Universe moves: it makes things move in a much more harmonious way: not going against the grain.

- At this moment, we can say that the shifts that are going on are only about moving humanity higher, as Kryon was saying. Yet we are taking this [the body] with us

T: a little different from what K is saying, isn't it?

M/A: Yes. This whole kit and kaboodle is moving on up and that's a big deal!

- Ascension is assured. Getting past the stuff that's in our heads . . . that's the deal:

T: Is Rama's head going to be OK – he's going for an adjustment . . .

M/A: Yes - getting an upgrade like all of us

T: having exceptional little altercations

M/A: Yes ascension symptoms getting much more

T: maybe the capsule will help . . {yes} . something for taking pressure off the head

M/A: Yes

T: and do some more breathing

M/A: Yes. Breathing is vital to the shift in consciousness right now. The things that are underway in relative terms to how we make it: it is so awesome to behold!

- Like They keep saying: more and more of us are seeing how magnificent we are in these forms, even healing with the illusion of Maya . . the Light keeps shining through

T: a song called "Let it go ..."

M/A: All the old letting go only serves to keep the Circle going of samsara – it's over: suffering does not have to go on! We know the time is pretty late -

T: Is there anything you want to share with us . . . to look forward to . . .

M/A: Let's say the revelations about the fact that we are here – we mean you no harm; we come in peace. On the other hand, the folks that are playing with the old story called the UAPs : yeah – your Deep State

T: all kinds of nonsense – they are not UAPS

M/A: Let's say they know exactly what's going on

T: most people have an inkling

M/A: would hope so!

- It's a challenging time to be here and to know how make it through – and this we can say – you asked what is coming up: it is about staying in the Oneness of what this Aquarian concept is about. Plato was not just whistling away – the Athenian concept of balance in all realms . . .

- Right now, We'll say it again : all the ancient teachers, masters, angels – we're are all here; and there are more of us than they are of them. And 'them is us' – they will find out on the way to Dracos, if not sooner. It's a large story

T: Dracos thing ??

M/A: the only situation going on with dystopian malfunctions this year - there is a synchronicity, a synergy to the order of the universe; the psycho babble that transmission box puts out is the deal you gotta let go of - it's what fucks with your head. It's the truth . .

T: Puts Bill Jones in the Circle and can you take him into your sphere . . . and sit with him on his bed maybe . . .

M/A: We might give him a thrill or two

- Let's just say we will be bringing in all the angels and masters of healing to re-adjust, re-align the hemispheres so that things function within normal parameters - and have (hope) the brain all functions working normally – and what's normal?

T: Not sure any more - everything is changing

M/A: yes, and it is about balance and harmony in all realms, like we're hearing about.

- 3D, 4D, 5D, on up: it is simply about taking our rightful place in the scheme of things which is: we are entering this Sat Yuga that's been discussed and cussed ad nauseum

- When you sit down with a genie to have tea, the jinn, the genies, all the elements - earth, air, fire, water, ether - the fairies, the gnomes, the hobbits, the elves, the dwarves: the different forms of life that are here to make up what we call Life – it is so amazing to behold.

- Yet we remain still . . . drudge through the tar pits of the old timeline

T: they gotta go

M/A: It's about your thoughts: change your thoughts; change your reality: that simple [snaps her fingers]

- it's about letting it go in here: taking the time to breathe and watch the shift.

- And it is happening instantaneously now. The dimensions have changed enough - what you think, you are; thoughts are things; watch your thoughts

- in the ashrams, you only speak the the phrases that will raise it up.

- Right now, it is quite awesome to be here. In a body! They are saying this is the moment: we've got the gifts to change it right now!

- Better be on our way

T: can't find the TV remote!

M/A: And she's got miles to go

PT398 – Lost Civilizations, DMT Entities, & Altered States of Consciousness and Early Religion

<https://psychedelicstoday.com/2023/03/14/pt398-graham-hancock/?s=03>

In this episode, Joe interviews Graham Hancock: legendary bestselling author and writer and presenter of the new Netflix docuseries, "Ancient Apocalypse," where he travels the world looking for evidence of lost civilizations likely much more advanced than historians previously believed.

In this episode, Joe interviews Graham Hancock: legendary bestselling author and writer and presenter of the new Netflix docuseries, "Ancient Apocalypse," where he travels the world looking for evidence of lost civilizations likely much more advanced than historians previously believed.

Hancock talks about his early books and how ayahuasca influenced his writing; the similarities in cave art and the common link of altered states of consciousness; how integral these states likely were toward the creation of early religion (especially Christianity); how much the annihilation of religious traditions has hidden history; why his and Rupert Sheldrake's Tedx talks were originally taken offline; new understandings of Neanderthals' intelligence and creativity; the Quetzalcóatl; and the concept of the Younger Dryas impact hypothesis: could there have been an advanced civilization 12,800 years ago that we're just starting to comprehend? Could it have been Atlantis?

He discusses the conflict with mystery and archaeology's obsession with scientism and materialist reductionism – that we keep trying to force everything into little boxes of approved science and have lost our imaginations and openness to possibility, especially when you realize how often narratives are built based on interpretations of data rather than facts (since the farther back we go, evidence becomes harder to come by). He believes science needs humility, a willingness to listen to Indigenous history, and a much more open mind when it comes to altered states of consciousness: "I'm convinced we're missing something important from our past, and if we don't look for it, we won't find it.

Hancock has just announced that he will be a speaker at UK's Breaking Convention, April 20 – 22 at the University of Exeter, and some of the PT team will be there too! To save 10% off tickets, use code PSYCHTODAYBC10 at checkout.

Notable Quotes

"I think there's a huge amount of genuine mystery in the past, and there's an attempt by archaeologists to explain away that mystery, ...to just drain the past of mystery and to leave nothing there except dry facts (supposed facts) as archaeologists claim, but which, when you dig deep enough, you find are actually interpretations of limited data sets. I don't know why archaeologists just want the past to be so boring. ...Of course there's a need for rigor and discipline, but there's also a need for imagination and openness of mind when it comes to interpreting our collective past."

"Those paintings included the same geometric patterns and the same therianthrope entities construed in slightly different ways, but clearly the same kind of encounter is being documented in the cave art from 30 or 40 thousand years ago and is being documented by shamans in the Amazon rainforest today. And what's the common factor? The common factor is altered states of consciousness."

"With extended release DMT, volunteers are going into the DMT state for an hour and they're making remarkably homogeneous reports about entity encounters and about the space in which they encounter those entities. One reasonable supposition has to be: there are many possibilities for this, but when people from all over the world see the same things [and] have the same encounters in the same sort of space, you have to consider the possibility that that space is real in some way that our science doesn't recognize."

“Psychedelics and experiences in altered states of consciousness have actually been foundational and fundamental to human culture, and by pretending that they’re not, as we’ve been doing for the last 50 years, we’re making a huge mistake. We have to change that outlook and welcome and embrace what these gifts of the universe have to give us.”
